

RCN country and regional boards - policy for open and confidential sessions

Purpose of policy

RCN boards will be as open as possible in their proceedings. However, there will be situations where a board may wish or may be obliged to discuss matters in con

Decision about open or confidential

The chair of the board, in consultation with the vice chair, Council member on the board, and board secretary (ie the country or regional director) will decide which bus