

Finally, we do not believe that the scope of practice is clear. There is no mention of the role of the professional regulator, the NMC, and the proposed standard contains numerous references to practice such as diagnoses and management of complex patients