

College
of Nursing

my application for indef nite you must provide a letter from your employer that details your absences from work. Absence from work to take part in legally organised strike action on your application.

your employer will provide a supporting letter meets the salary threshold required by the Immigration Rules. Any reduction in your salary due to taking part in legally organised strike action on your application.

The government's 'Workers and Temporary Workers' guidance sets this out in more detail. Visit

#FairPayForNursing