

Guide to accessing Royal College of Nursing Publications and Endorsed Publications

- This is a guide to accessing clinical guidelines, reports, surveys and resources published or endorsed by the RCN (Royal College of Nursing).
- The RCN reviews all its publications after three years. Previous editions of RCN publications are taken down from the RCN website and replaced where appropriate with the updated edition. RCN publications over three years old and past their review date are available in our digital archive.
- If you need help or advice, including if you can't find what you need, please contact rcn.library@rcn.org.uk

Step 1

Searching for RCN publications, including those past their review date is best done through the Library catalogue
