

Consultation arrangements for the flexible workforce

Introduction

The Company manages a wide range of flexible work opportunities for nursing and social care. The Company's main purpose is to enable nurses and carers to work flexibly, fully supporting work/life balance needs and professional development.

Flexible workers have the status of employees only while working on any single

SAMPLE